WIENER PRIVATBANK

Corporate philosophy

Vision

Wiener Privatbank is a dynamic specialist bank with a clear focus on real estate and capital market expertise. As a real estate one-stop-shop, we offer an integrated combination of investment opportunities, services and financing around real estate from a single source, thus opening up holistic access to one of the most interesting and stable forms of investment on the market.

In addition, we rely on sound capital market expertise consisting of professional wealth advice and management with in-house fund management. Not the off-the-shelf product, but special fund solutions as well as sustainable and value-oriented forms of investment enable us to offer target group-specific individuality in investments.

Mission

Individual advice – in Private Banking at Wiener Privatbank, German, English, and several Eastern European languages are spoken – underlining our commitment to customer proximity and independence in both service and product offerings. These are our strengths, because Wiener Privatbank is committed to only one interest: that of its clients.

To deliver outstanding results, we blend the security of sound investments with forward-looking, long-term strategies.

Values

Seriousness, security and discretion form the foundation of our value system. We live these traditional virtues of a private bank in a modern way. We therefore place great importance on moving quickly and proactively to ensure client satisfaction.

As such, our values include independence, transparency and sustainability in addition to a focus on service and profitability.
